

Newman 1-A

1) PCGS Genuine, rim damage (VG details). Heritage 1/2015 FUN, lot 4004, realized $117,500.

Newman 1-B

1) British Museum item #C.3847

Image courtesy of the British Museum.

2) MS64 NGC. Jon Hanson; Donald G. Partrick (Heritage 1/2015), lot 5837, realized $199,750.

3) MS63 PCGS. Collection of a Patriotic American (Heritage 7/2009), lot 1001.

4) MS63 NGC. Richard Picker (privately, 3/17/71 @ $3,000) as the discovery coin but see note at end as Newcomer had one by the mid-1920s; Donald G. Partrick (Heritage 4/2021), lot 3032, realized $102,000; Heritage 1/2026 FUN, lot 3006, realized $82,350.

5) AU55 NGC. Richard Picker (Stack's 10/1984), lot 117; Eric P. Newman; EPNES (Heritage 11/2018), lot 15002, realized $57,600.

6) AU Details PCGS. Americana Sale (Stack's 1/2008), lot 5613; Stacks 11/2008, lot 3030; Public Auction (Coin Galleries 8/2009), lot 3019; Chicago Sale (Stack's Bowers 8/2011), lot 6140, where it was misattributed as Newman 1-C; Thadeus Tatum III; ANA Convention Auction (Stack's Bowers 8/2018), lot 1004, realized $31,200.

7) PCGSXF40. John Kraljevich 8/2006 privately; Sydney Martin (StacksBowers 8/2023), lot 8235, realized $26,400.

8) PCGS Genuine, surfaces tooled (XF details). William Fowler (StacksBowers 9/2011), lot 1109, realized $12,650.

9) XF40 details, damaged, PCGS. StacksBowers 3/2026, lot 1598, realized $15,600.

10) Fine 12 PCGS. Stack's (9/2006), lot 113.

11) Fine. Lester Merkin (11/1968), lot 100, withdrawn prior to the sale, its attribution in question.

Note: One was listed in the Newcomer inventory on the Newman Portal as below.

1776	Pewter. Usual type with (one R) in CURRENCY. Incomplete rings on reverse. A peculiar phase of this die. Fine	15.00
------	--	-------